As Christians, we must be ready for the coming of the Lord at all times. Our efforts to secure our future by building up our financial and material security may prevent us from being ready for the coming of the Lord. Sometimes, we consider material wealth for ourself as the sign and the guarantee of a successful life. We may also believe that all we possess belong exclusively to ourselves.

In the Gospel, Jesus tells us to be ready when He comes. For all our cares and precautions, would not in way help us to know when or how the Lord will come to call us to himself. Jesus warns us that it will be like a thief in the middle of the night. Most of us would have probably experienced having had something stolen from our house, our car, or even our person. In most cases, if we had known in advance, we could easily have thwarted the thief. Sometimes the theft was simply due to our not having taken the simplest of precautions but, after the theft had taken place, it was too late. Jesus is warning us today about the quality of our lives. Apparently, some people give top priority to the property they own. Are we ready to meet the Lord when he comes?

In the Second Reading we are told that "By faith, Abraham obeyed the call to set out for a country that was the inheritance given to him and his descendants...he set out without knowing where he was going." We would love to have complete control and plans for our future life but it seldom works out like that. In fact, like Abraham, we do not know where our life's journey will lead us. We do know the final destination but we do not know how or when we will reach it.

Abraham and his family “lived in tents while he looked forward to a city founded, designed and built by God”. We would like to have securities for ourselves on earth but our Christian faith offers us a life lived in love and service for the Kingdom of God, for a city, a society of justice and peace, designed and built by God. It is in doing this that we amass real wealth not only for ourselves but for others as well. By living like this, we are ready, at any time, to meet our Lord and Saviour. And when we do meet him, we will know that all along we had lived with him in those we loved and served during our pilgrimage.

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in One, Holy, Catholic and Apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

ANIMA CHRISTI

Soul of Christ, sanctify me

Body of Christ, save me

Blood of Christ, inebriate me

Water from the side of Christ, wash me

Passion of Christ, strengthen me

O good Jesus, hear me

Within thy wounds, hide me

Suffer me not to be separated from thee

From the malignant enemy defend me

In the hour of my death call me

and bid me come unto thee,

that with thy saints I may praise thee

forever and ever. Amen.
